Adel Al Ali, Chief Executive Officer of Air Arabia Group, said: “Milan is the latest addition to our extensive network of connections from Sharjah, thus offering our customers in the United Arab Emirates and beyond the opportunity to travel to Italy with our renowned service. The launch of Air Arabia direct flights to Milan reconfirms our commitment to continually offer our customers new destinations, allowing them to travel at affordable fares and with a high standard of service. We are looking forward to the start of flights to Milan in order to welcome our customers and bring them to discover this wonderful city”.

Giacomo Cattaneo, SACBO's Aviation Commercial Director, confirms that: “the opening of the first direct connection with the United Arab Emirates is a reason for legitimate satisfaction, all the more so because the new destination will be operated by a historic, loyal and reliable partner such as Air Arabia, the airline that has made Milan Bergamo airport one of the main European airports in their network. As well as creating a convenient travel opportunity for those heading to the city and the region, the connection with Sharjah is a gateway to Dubai, which is less than half an hour away from Sharjah Airport. The new flight will also make it possible to continue from Sharjah to over 60 destinations in Africa, Asia and the Middle East served by Air Arabia”.

Air Arabia operates a fleet of the latest-generation Airbus A320 and A321 neo-LRs, which are the world's most modern and best-selling single-aisle aircraft. The cabin configuration provides greater passenger comfort, with one of the most generous pitches in its category. The new Air Arabia aircraft are also equipped with the "SkyTime" in-flight entertainment system, a free streaming service that will allow passengers to stream a wide selection of content directly to their devices. Prior to their flights, eligible travellers can also benefit from City Check-in, where they can drop off their luggage and collect boarding passes at Air Arabia outlets throughout the UAE.

Customers can now book the new direct flights between Milan Bergamo and Sharjah by visiting the Air Arabia website at www.airarabia.com, through the call centre or in the best travel agencies.
