FROM 23 JUNE 2023 A NEW ROUTE CONNECTING MILAN
BERGAMO AND TBILISI WITH FLIGHTS OPERATED BY GEORGIAN AIRWAYS

Milan Bergamo Airport and Georgian Airways have announced the launch of the new route connecting Tbilisi International Airport, which will be operational from 23 June 2023 with twice-weekly flights every Tuesday and Friday. This is the 143rd destination to be served with direct flights in the 2023 summer season from Milan Bergamo Airport, and Georgia has become the 40th country to join the route network.

Georgian Airways is based at Tbilisi and has a modern fleet of medium-haul Boeing 737 (700 and 800 series aircraft) and CRJ aircrafts. The new route from Milan Bergamo Airport is the only direct flight from Lombardy and the rest of Northern Italy to the capital of Georgia.

Georgian Airways will be using a 133-seat Boeing 737-700, with 12 business-class seats and 121 economy-class seats, for the route.

Flights will leave Tbilisi at 4.15 p.m. local time, and will arrive in Milan Bergamo at 6.45 p.m. The flight from Milan Bergamo will leave at 7.45 p.m. and will land in Tbilisi at 1.55 a.m. local time.

The flights have been scheduled to allow passengers to and from Tbilisi to also use Milan Bergamo as a transit hub to quickly connect to destinations in Southern Italy, such as Naples, Bari or Catania, as well as others in Europe and North Africa.
